Poytons Estate is meticulously designed, constructed, and perfected with a unique and distinguished style by the renowned boutique developer in the local area. This vibrant two-level residence brings forth innovative modern concepts in a setting filled with lifestyle conveniences. Crisp lines adorn the exterior, introducing remarkable spaces that begin with two ground-level bedrooms, each featuring built-in robes and heating/cooling, with one opening to a courtyard retreat through sliding glass doors. The fully tiled and impressively appointed central bathroom adds its own allure to the accommodation. Above, a sky-lit living/dining area, characterised by timber floors, an elegant balcony, and its own heating/cooling, encompasses a Bosch-equipped kitchen of evident quality. The property's proximity to West Footscray's vibrant cafes, Central West shopping, and Tottenham train station enhances its allure, making it a residence poised to offer exceptional appeal and consistent returns as an investment. Step into your contemporary living home where there's nothing left to do but relish in all that it provides. Place an enquiry today to secure your inspection.
