Being two minutes to the CBD and shops, and conveniently located across from the TAFE, Bowling club and local high school this property is positioned perfectly. With a tenant in place until June 2024 this property has a guaranteed rental return. This property is suited to get a rental return for a short time then move right in to this central location. With features such as an open plan kitchen design looking over the family room, evaporative cooling and gas for heating and a great backyard with scenic views. This is the one you're looking for!
