Perched high on prestigious Schmidt Street in the heart of Frenchville. This property is one of a kind, quirky in design and hosting room for the large family. This exceptionally well-designed home puts the focus squarely on family entertaining. This home beautifully incorporates an indoor/outdoor lifestyle, with the entire house being designed around the large centre courtyard, making entertaining a breeze. With glass sliding doors seamlessly connecting the kitchen, living, and dining space to this completely private entertainer's dream. The home also features 5 built-in bedrooms (main with ensuite), a modern bathroom, open plan living with an updated kitchen, separate laundry and a 2-car garage + extra lean-to. Situated on a 1057m² allotment only a short walk to Frenchville School, Living the Bean café and Frenchville walking track. Solid as a rock and quality built, this unique property is perfect for the buyer looking for a large family home to put their stamp on – Don't wait this one will be popular.
