If you have ever considered a lifestyle change and to maybe take care of a few flat acres, we might have found the perfect place for you! Sitting in a charming rural setting, this home encourages a relaxed country feel and will be loved and appreciated by anyone wanting some space out of town. With a superb, everchanging outlook from each and every window, this home will be enjoyed for years to come. The house itself offers a separate lounge room with the open plan dining and kitchen on the upstairs level, enjoying the rural aspect. The sleeping quarters include three bedrooms upstairs with a fourth bedroom downstairs that adjoins a large lounge or second living zone and second bathroom. Down here is the perfect self-contained retreat for older children or extended family. With a large double garage on the house and another huge shed on the property, you don't want to miss the opportunity to own a versatile 8.2 acre (approx.) lifestyle property in a prime location.
