This most comfortable two story, green title home offers excellent living with both formal and informal areas. Do not be deceived by the subtle façade - the space and features on offer will surprise and delight you! Boasting master bedroom downstairs and offering good size robes and ensuite with double vanity. The formal living room has lush garden aspects at all points, with two areas on offer, both lounge and separate dining which also doubles up as a study. This area is dressed warmly with timber floors and offers delightful natural light. The kitchen and family room enjoys a north west aspect and is light and airy. The kitchen was upgraded some years ago with stone tops and ample cupboard space. This area opens to the rear garden which is private and tranquil complete with alfresco entertainment space and easy care reticulated gardens. A large double garage from the rear lane protects this area from the westerly heat and gives peace of mind with secure off street parking for your vehicles. Upstairs, boasts two minor bedroom both of a good size plus robes. They are divided by main bathroom dressed in a federation style. This is a comfortable home or investment and a great way of getting into this amazing area - do not delay - contact us today to arrange your viewing.
