THE DEAL: Expressions of Interest

THE DEAL Stunning inside and out, you will be impressed by this recently renovated apartment. Boasting a contemporary fit-out, and grand balcony, this residence is ideal for first-time homeowners or savvy investors. Inside, stone bench tops grace both the kitchen and bathroom, complemented by stainless steel appliances including a dishwasher. The bathrooms boast full-height tiling, semi-frameless shower screens, and hobless showers, while porcelain floor tiles enhance the living area. A stunning addition is the larger than life balcony, with tree top serene views and as one of only four, you will be the envy of other residents. With Beaufort Street's renowned dining and cafe scene mere moments away and effortless connections to the city via nearby bus and train stations, every convenience is at your fingertips. Only 350 metres from Coles and a small shopping district, the nearby bus stop grants easy access to the city. Inglewood Primary and St Peter's Primary are within walking distance, ensuring convenience for families, while for those who enjoy dining out, the vibrant Beaufort Street restaurant and cafe strip is just a short drive away, offering endless culinary delights. SEALS THE DEAL Tucked away on a peaceful residential street and only a stone's throw from the lively atmosphere of Beaufort Street, this residence offers both comfort and excitement in equal measure.
