Experience the ultimate private and peaceful lifestyle on this stunning 40-acre property, located at 22-32 Fosters Lane, Anderleigh. This unique offering features two hand built dwellings rendered in mud brick and stone, a perfect haven for multiple families or those looking to establish a self-sufficient community. The main residence exudes a distinctive style with its timber kitchen utilising timber slabs from K'gari (Fraser Island), adding an authentic rustic charm. Beyond the indoor allure of this home, the outdoor living experience is enhanced by a woodfired pizza oven & picturesque gardens - perfect for entertaining friends and family under the stars - all while enjoying total privacy. The second dwelling, built predominantly with mud bricks and timber, boasts an overwhelming amount of flexibility. It may be in need of some TLC, but what a fantastic project for the practically minded. With multiple buildings under the roofline and self-contained guest accommodation, the possibilities are endless. The separate artist's retreat gives you your own creative sanctuary. The established fruit trees mean your orchard is ripe for enjoyment or expansion. Adding to the character and utilisation of this lifestyle acreage are three dams that not only offer picturesque views but also serve as practical water sources. With plenty of room for animals to complete your hobby farm, a cleared oval towards the centre of the property makes for the ideal spot for a game of cricket, or to kick a football - flexible living at its best.
