Welcome to 22 Aitken Drive, nestled in the esteemed suburb of Winthrop, this 4-bedroom, 2-bathroom residence with generous garage space is a harmonious blend of style and comfort. As you step through the chic entrance, you're immediately welcomed by a world of spacious interiors and meticulous design. One of the standout features is the master bedroom, located at the front. While it faces the street, a lush canopy of green trees and a verdant garden shield it, transforming the space into a tranquil green sanctuary. Waking up here, you'll feel miles away from the hustle and bustle, immersed in nature's embrace. The heart of the home, a beautifully renovated kitchen, seamlessly integrates with both formal and informal living areas. With ducted reverse cycle air conditioning, year-round comfort is a given. The backyard is an entertainer's dream. The expansive alfresco area beckons for gatherings, while the newly installed pool, framed by aggregate concrete and sleek glass fencing, promises endless summer fun. And for the younger members of the family, an incredible cubby house awaits. Recent upgrades, including a fresh coat of paint and plush new carpets in the main living areas, ensure the home feels fresh and contemporary. With its prime location, 22 Aitken Drive offers more than just a home; it offers a lifestyle. Top-tier educational institutions, efficient transport links, and a range of healthcare facilities are all within arm's reach. This is where luxury meets convenience, and where your dream home becomes a reality. Don't miss this unparalleled opportunity!
