A truly remarkable residence with striking street appeal and unparalleled elegance, this home offers an abundance of natural light, picturesque tree views, multiple outdoor living areas, spacious and inviting internal living and four large bedrooms, among other exceptional features. Welcome to 22 Banora Hills Drive Banora Point. Impeccably maintained by its current owners, this home boasts an abundance of interior space on the main floor. The primary level features an expansive kitchen, a generously sized living and dining area, and four spacious bedrooms. Among these bedrooms, you'll find a luxurious master suite that radiates opulence and serenity, complete with a private balcony. Additionally, a well-appointed main bathroom and a separate WC enhance the comfort and practicality of this floor. High-quality finishes, natural timber floors, plush carpeting, and high ceilings add to the grandeur of this substantial residence. On either side of this floor, there are two generously proportioned outdoor living spaces, offering various options for outdoor relaxation and entertainment. A few steps lead to the garage and laundry room, while a gentle descent of the external timber decked walkway provides access to the under-home storage and workshop. Car enthusiasts and those with multiple vehicles will appreciate the ample parking options, including a double garage and additional space in the driveway, along with a designated off-street parking space for caravans or boats. Positioned in an irreplaceable location, this exceptional opportunity should not be missed. We extend a warm invitation for you to experience the splendour of 22 Banora Hills Drive at our upcoming open house. Prepare to be enchanted by its charm and envision the remarkable lifestyle that awaits you in this truly extraordinary residence.
