Nestled within the quiet sleepy coastal community of Coronet Bay, we are offering you an affordable seaside home with excellent potential. This relic of a home is a delightful canvas, ready for you to infuse your personal style and make it your own. This home provides you with good bones, a solid foundation on which to build your future. The property features two bedrooms and one bathroom and a well-conceived layout that maximizes space and light. The kitchen, lounge, and dining areas flow effortlessly onto an upstairs deck, where the sea breeze beckons and promises serene moments overlooking the neighbourhood. Downstairs offers you a laundry with second shower, perfect for those sandy returns from the beach. This cosy abode is situated on a generous 503 m², providing ample room outside. Living in Coronet Bay means embracing a small-town community with a big heart. Here, life is a tranquil affair, punctuated by easy walks to the Coronet Bay beach and the local amenities. For a change of scenery, a mere 10-minute drive will take you to the township of Grantville, with its array of shops and services. This house is more than just a residence; it's an opportunity to experience a seaside lifestyle, to create a haven that reflects your tastes and dreams. Don't let this chance slip through your fingers—22 Bass Horizon Promenade is the key to a new chapter in a community that truly feels like home.
