Step inside this beautifully renovated family home. Combining period style class with modern comfort and luxury, this home epitomises the Point Cook lifestyle. Moments from every amenity required, walking distance to bus stops, Lumen Christi Primary School, Emmanuel College, shops, restaurants and cafes, and seamless freeway access via Palmers Road. You rarely have to drive anywhere. Sitting on approximately 596m² of prime real estate, this is an incredible opportunity to secure a meticulously renovated home in one of Point Cook's most established pockets. The floorplan is exceptional, offering four spacious bedrooms, the master featuring his and her wardrobes and an immaculate ensuite with double vanities, stone bench top and an oversized frameless shower. The three remaining bedrooms include built-in-wardrobes and are serviced by the fresh and vibrant central bathroom. The kitchen is positioned in the centre of the home, in conjunction with the light filled dining area and huge pergola area outside, this home provides the perfect setting for gatherings with family and friends. The kitchen features stone bench tops, overhead cabinetry and brand-new stainless-steel appliances. The two living zones are positioned at the front and rear of the home, both offering an excellent amount of space. The double garage provides drive-through rear access for those who may have a trailer, caravan, boat or perhaps some additional cars. This home is in the perfect setting, a gorgeous, leafy tree lined street in the heart of Point Cook. It truly does not get any better, call today to inspect.
