Nestled in the serenity of Raglan, this charming two-bedroom home sits on a spacious 1,214 square meter parcel of land. Upon entering, you're greeted by tasteful renovations that enhance the home's original character. The interior boasts elegant timber floorboards that exude warmth and charm throughout with a reverse cycle air conditioner and a wood fire heater for comfort all year round. Abundant natural light floods the interior spaces, creating an inviting atmosphere. Outside, the property features an unequipped bore, offering the potential for further landscaping and water security. A convenient two-car carport provides shelter for vehicles, while the fully fenced large yard offers privacy and security for outdoor activities and relaxation. With its beautiful characteristics and ample space, this property in Raglan presents a delightful opportunity for comfortable living in a tranquil setting.
