This stunningly modern example of the classic Queenslander sits on a beautifully elevated 3015m² allotment, featuring ample living space and entertaining areas, with separate accommodation for the extended family. Guaranteed to impress if you are looking for that exclusive and uniquely special property, mark this down as an absolute must to inspect. The elevated location is perfect for this bespoke creation, originally a builder's own home which is immediately evident on entry. Designed to capture the panoramic views North to Brisbane city, Stradbroke Island and round to the southern Gold Coast, this extraordinary home features soaring vaulted ceilings throughout the expansive open plan living/dining/kitchen area, with air-conditioning, fans and combustion wood heater for year round comfort, naturally flowing to the fully covered veranda and entertainment deck. You will enjoy the most spectacular views available on the Mountain, watch the weather roll by, with remote controlled blinds allowing full control of your environment. The farmer's style kitchen is centrally positioned for entertaining, complete with butler's pantry, stone benches and stylish cabinetry, country-style range with gas cooktop and dishwasher. An absolute dream to work from, enjoy entertaining in style year-round, with direct access to the sprawling balcony, boasting those stunning views. The main home comprises three generous bedrooms plus office, including king-size master bedroom featuring parents retreat with verandah access, walk-in robe and stylish ensuite. All bedrooms come with built in robes and French doors leading out to the verandah. The double auto lock up garage under the main home has internal access. A separate, secure storage and workshop area under the home sits on slab, with ample lighting and power outlets for the hobbyist or seasoned professional. The additional carport is perfect for the boat, caravan or trade vehicles if required. The fully self-contained granny flat is nicely separated from the main home and offers plenty of space for family/guest accommodation, awesome games room/man cave, teens' retreat, or ready to go supplementary income stream. Estate features include: * Open plan living/dining area with bamboo flooring and high vaulted ceilings • Country style chef's kitchen with butler's pantry • French doors lead to covered verandah with remote awnings and stunning views* Main home - 3 K/S bedrooms w/ robes.
