Step into a piece of history with this remarkable property, cherished by a single owner since 1928. Set upon approximately 2800sqm, the delightful solid stone and brick home will capture your imagination. The high ceilings, adorned with exquisite ceiling roses, evoke a sense of grandeur while the feature hallway timber arch work welcomes you into this storied abode. New polished solid timber floors add warmth and the flexible floorplan offers versatility, catering to various lifestyle needs, with a great store room adding to the convenience. Each room boasts generous proportions, allowing for comfort and ample space for new beginnings. Nestled in this property's charming allure is a backyard dunny, a nod to its historical roots plus the magnificent old shed, boasting high clearance, stands as a testament to the property's heritage. This residence is not just a home; it's a testament to enduring quality, offering a canvas for new memories and endless possibilities. With its rich history this property presents a rare opportunity for those seeking to blend a heritage feel with new beginnings.
