Nestled serenely on a quiet, tree-lined street, this original three bedroom home seamlessly blends retro charm with subtle modern improvements. Generous window frontage captures the natural light, infusing the home with a welcoming natural glow. Once inside, the comfort of plush new carpet and hybrid timber flooring extends through the spacious formal living room, the ideal surroundings for enjoying family gatherings. Picture enjoying a morning coffee in the bright casual meals area, sitting alongside an updated kitchen which features refreshed cabinetry and generous countertop space. The main bedroom features a built-in robe and ensuite bathroom - a sought after addition to a three bedroom home that is difficult to find in this area! Both the ensuite and family bathroom retain a largely original authentic charm, offering a canvas for the new owner's personal touch and future improvements.
