Situated on a large 1/2-acre corner allotment, with established trees and low maintenance gardens. This is a property that offers plenty of room to move and set amongst lovely established gardens, conveniently located within the Avenel township. "Country Charm" this is what comes to mind within this 3-bedroom timber cottage. Featuring high cathedral ceilings, and light filled windows, an inviting second living area/conservatory room which brings the outside living in. Country kitchen with servery windows to the conservatory, large master bedroom, cosy wood fire & split system within the main open-plan living area, solar electricity, and veranda's to the north and south side. Additional garden sheds & 2 car carport. This is a truly unique property, perfect for those seeking privacy, space, and a cosy country cottage.
