In an awesome location adjacent to the CBD, this charming character home has been diligently and respectfully renovated from top-to-toe, now presenting as a beautiful harmonisation of fine traditional features with a high quality and stylish, contemporary coastal look throughout. Set only an 800m level walk from the CBD, as soon as you set eyes on gorgeous cottage façade and new white picket fence, you will fall in love. Inside, the immaculately presented home features the original 9ft high ceilings with ornate cornicing, complemented by the gleaming hardwood timber floors found throughout the property. The spacious, open plan lounge and dining is flooded with natural light and has a far-reaching tree-lined outlook. This space is overlooked by the new, premium urban-contemporary styled kitchen, which features a huge amount of storage, quality appliances and an expansive composite stone benchtop, creating a great hub for everyday casual entertaining. Accommodation offers three bedrooms, all with ceiling fans and they are serviced by a trendy, high quality renovated central bathroom. A single garage with extra storage is at street level and this is also where you enter the traditional white picket fenced yard that leads to up to the front porch. Completely renovated properties like this, in such a highly sought after CBD location are a rare find today and present an opportunity not to be missed.
