Welcome to 22 Macdonald Place! Nestled in the heart of the family-friendly suburb of Carseldine, the residence stands as an emblem of contemporary living with the added benefit of a community-oriented locale. This well-maintained house, with its four generously sized bedrooms and multiple living areas, offers a blend of space, comfort, and convenience that caters to the modern family's lifestyle. The welcoming ambiance is complemented by the plush carpeting in all four bedrooms, including a master complete with a walk-in robe and an ensuite for added luxury. The other three bedrooms do not skimp on space either, each equipped with built-in robes, making organization a breeze. The main bathroom boasts both a luxurious standalone shower and a relaxing bathtub, complemented by a separated water closet for added convenience. The house's thoughtful design includes a separate living room, ensuring ample space for family activities, while the rumpus room provides an additional area that's versatile enough for entertainment or recreation. This space could also be a dedicated study/media/retreat area, offering flexibility to cater to your work-from-home needs or quiet leisure time. The central hub of the home, comprised of the lounge, dining, and kitchen, is arranged in an open-plan layout that encourages family togetherness. Here, the kitchen stands out with modern amenities including a gas cooktop, dishwasher, pantry, and breakfast bar - perfect for both the casual meal and festive gatherings.
