Impressively set and pristinely presented, this contemporary home delivers low maintenance living just minutes to leafy parklands, cafes/restaurants, Station Street Fairfield Village, major arterials and public transportation. It offers buyers the perfect balance to work, relax and play. From the welcoming entrance, engineered timber floors guide you into a home office along with access to the rear garage. Up the staircase reveals an airy open plan kitchen, meals and living zone with connecting balcony. The sophisticated kitchen showcases quality appliances, ample storage and stone surfaces. The dedicated sleeping wing includes two spacious bedrooms each with their own stylish ensuites and fantastic built in robe storage. Soaked in natural light is an outstanding rooftop terrace, it's the perfect setting for entertaining guests or having a quiet area to read a book. Added features also include split system heating cooling throughout, Euro laundry, guest powder room, engineered timber flooring, carpets and a remote controlled single garage.
