Nestled in this quaint Barossa town that links this prestigious wine growing region with the rest of the Adelaide Hills this allotment enables those seeking the tranquillity of the Hills with the conveniences of the Barossa and all just an hour from the city and the river. This location is very connected and intriguingly central so meaning that there's a genuine choice of schools and easier access to work opportunities making this a very liveable location. Ideal for the growing family or those seeking a tree change, this generously fronted allotment already boasts mature planting so it's easy to fashion the juvenile trees to accommodate the home of your dreams and create a place that is truly remarkable. Set on an old town block this property has room to move without being too difficult to maintain and will suit those seeking to escape the suburbs but who, don't to be maintaining their block with every available moment so providing the freedom to enjoy the wonderful lifestyle on offer. Easy access to the River to share weekends with friends or the wineries for Sunday session, this gorgeous town calms the mind and soothes the soul. Make this the place you build. Make Springton your home and make this a place you will be proud to call your own. RLA 232366
