A tranquil tree-lined retreat, this large family home rests in a leafy green pocket on a 783sqm lot. Recently renovated with fresh paint, new carpet and modern touches, the house offers exceptional living in charming Chapel Hill. Boasting exceptional space indoors, the lower level greets you with a formal living and dining room and a casual meals area framing the central kitchen with wraparound benchtops and a breakfast bar. The layout continues with an air-conditioned rumpus room and an additional room, creating extra living, bedroom or multipurpose space. With these family zones unfolding to a large concrete courtyard and an undercover patio nestled by the backyard and green gardens, there is plenty of room to sit and sip coffee outdoors or watch kids ride scooters and kick a ball. Four bedrooms are upstairs, including one with a private balcony. The master suite reveals an ensuite with dual vanities and double showers, and two family bathrooms service the rest of the house. Presenting a peaceful suburban lifestyle, this home rests in a family-friendly street close to beautiful parks, playgrounds, and hiking trails up Mt Coot-tha. Bus stops are 190m away, and children are 1km from Chapel Hill State School, within the Indooroopilly State High School catchment, and minutes from Ambrose Treacy College, Brigidine and St Peter's. Kenmore Plaza is 4 minutes from your door, and you can enjoy shopping, dining and movies 6 minutes away at Indooroopilly Shopping Centre.
