

22 Turner Street, Redfern, NSW 2016

Sold House

Friday, 1 September 2023

22 Turner Street, Redfern, NSW 2016

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 1

Area: 108 m2

Type: House

Cadan Hickey

0283220750

Contact agent

Set in a quiet laneway row within footsteps of buzzing cafés, this recently refreshed terrace offers an idyllic urban hideaway of easycare comfort and convenience. Wonderfully spacious interiors reveal a clever free-flowing layout featuring two stylish living areas and separate dining. The well-equipped stone kitchen features Smeg appliances including a dishwasher, while to the rear is a north facing sun washed courtyard, perfect for entertaining. There are three upper level bedrooms, the master features split-cycle air conditioning and opens to a covered balcony. Further highlights include two modern fully tiled bathrooms, a concealed internal laundry and plantation shutters as well as polished timber floorboards, brand new carpet and an invaluable car space. It is positioned a stroll to Redfern Station, shops, bars and popular eateries, Redfern Oval, Prince Alfred Park and boasting rapid access to the CBD.- Warm and welcoming with two separate living areas- Sleek stone kitchen equipped with Smeg appliances- Separate dining, oversized sun washed courtyard- Upper level bedrooms with brand new quality carpet- Main with split cycle a/c opens to covered balcony- Fully tiled bathrooms, concealed internal laundry- Polished timber floorboards, plantation shutters- Custom storage/shelving, prized off-street parking- Stroll to Redfern Oval, the station, shops, cafés- Walk to Prince Alfred Park, rapid access to CBD- 13 minute walk to Central Station