Breathtaking interiors, understated luxury and the tranquility of a natural bushland outlook create a dream combination in this newly built home, positioned in burgeoning Billy's Lookout Estate and mere moments from the bright blue expanse of Lake Macquarie. Channeling all the latest trends and design concepts, and delivering a 5-star living experience, all aspects of this sanctuary are a masterclass in modern-day style. Fitted out for families while serving up outstanding entertaining credentials, its layout floats across three split levels, with open plan living, a home theatre, a rumpus room and a study complementing four bedrooms and two bathrooms. A gourmet kitchen forms the culinary hub of the home and is placed to easily connect to an outdoor living area where weekend entertaining will be elevated to another level. Landscaped front and rear and providing plenty of space for outside play, this home sets a new family benchmark. The new jewel in Lake Macquarie's crown, Teralba is now a thriving suburb that enjoys the quiet pace of village life while having everything you need close at hand. Foodies will love being near Warners Bay's café hub, and those who like to fit exercise into their daily routine will embrace the popular cycle/walkway that loops the lake's shoreline. If you're looking for something a little closer, Teralba village has some cute shops and Teralba Hotel offers some great menu options.
