Welcome to this secluded 4.73 hectare (11.6 acres) block zoned Rural/Residential. With this you can follow your rural pursuits and even have a granny flat beside or behind the main dwelling. Situated at the end of a battle-axe driveway gives the seclusion many seek when going for that bigger rural dream block. The land is flat with pasture and a large stand of natural timber and bush, firewood aplenty. Plus there is also a soak for watering the stock and garden.
