

221 Bluff Road, Sandringham, Vic 3191

Sold House

Tuesday, 17 October 2023

221 Bluff Road, Sandringham, Vic 3191

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Type: House

Zed Nasheet
0432797384

Contact agent

Step into luxury living with this stunning Art Deco brick masterpiece situated on a full block in the highly sought-after Poet's Corner Precinct of Sandringham. Nestled just a block away from schools, this up to four-bedroom gem is a testament to thoughtful design. The cleverly zoned floorplan distinguishes itself with a gracious master bedroom, a rear kids' wing for added privacy, and separate lounge and dining rooms that exude elegance. Bathed in natural light, the north-facing family area beckons you to relax and unwind. The heart of this home is the meticulously designed Bosch appliance kitchen, featuring CaesarStone benchtops and a glass splashback. The property is graced with beautiful details such as rich timberwork, elaborate ceilings, and two fireplaces, creating an ambiance of timeless charm. Additional highlights include a garage with storage space and a paved entertaining area nestled within the north-facing gardens. With the comfort of ducted heating and cooling, and the beach just a leisurely stroll away, this property offers the perfect blend of sophistication and convenience for modern living. Only minutes to Sandringham's seaside strip and public transport station, a choice of elite Primary Schools and the beach.