Built in 1889 and originally serving as the Church of Palms', this historic and heritage listed church has been transformed into a charming home. Showcasing a commanding facade and captivating street presence with its iconic green shade and white picket fence, this exquisite property now offers 3 bedrooms, 3 bathrooms, 2 car spaces and multiple living and entertaining areas. Adorned with magnificent, soaring cathedral ceilings, polished timber floors and rows of arched windows, this character rich abode features an expansive, open plan living space and mezzanine area which can be used as a secondary living room, library or study. Outside, a rear timber deck and in-ground saltwater pool will accommodate summer-long alfresco entertaining.
