What you will love

investment opportunity | convenience| views| space

This well-loved home has loads of extra enclosed space to accommodate all those extras that are a must have. The lower level of the home has its own entrance and incorporates the rumpus room with a reverse cycle air conditioner and separate laundry. It is the perfect man cave, teen zone, room to pop a guest who is visiting, or just extra space in general.

The main level offers a separate living area with a wood heater and a reverse cycle air conditioner giving you all year round comfort. The kitchen/dining area captures tree views and a glimpse of the sea. Both bedrooms have built-ins. There is off-street, undercover parking.

The home also offers a secure backyard, relaxing water views from deck off the dining area and when you add in the close proximity to Upper Burnie shopping centre and amenities, you have yourself an outstanding investment!
