Nestled within the esteemed 'Parc Vue' residence of the Mt Cooper Estate, this architecturally designed two-bedroom apartment epitomizes low-maintenance luxury living. Boasting a captivating open-plan layout, the residence features a modern kitchen equipped with stainless steel appliances, including a dishwasher, seamlessly integrated with the living and meals area. Step through the sliding door onto the balcony, offering a serene outdoor retreat. The spacious bedrooms are complemented by built-in robes, while a central bathroom adds convenience. Additional highlights include a European laundry, elegant floorboards, intercom system, secure car space, storage cage, and split-system heating and cooling. Situated in a superb development, the apartment is mere moments away from the vibrant shopping, dining, and entertainment options along Plenty Road, including the Polaris Shopping precinct and Bundoora Square. With Tram 86, buses, La Trobe University, Loyola College, and Melbourne's CBD just a stone's throw away, this location offers unparalleled convenience. Experience the perfect blend of urban convenience and quality living, with the tranquility of nature at your doorstep.
