This four bedroom, two bathroom brick veneer family home in the highly sought after Walnut Avenue precinct has had a complete makeover, with a new kitchen, new bathroom, and fresh carpet and paint throughout the property. Outside exists a blank canvas where you can make your own statement on what you wish to do in the garden. Situated close to schools, medical facilities and public transport, this home requires serious consideration. This solid home has a new lease on life and will provide many future memories for young families, or easy living for those looking to slow down and enjoy the prime location.
