This beautiful brick home is low maintenance, well-maintained, and located in a private neighbourhood setting. Impressively spacious, featuring 5 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms, a double carport, and an office, ideal for larger families or those seeking extra space. The home is in excellent condition and offers a well-designed layout that includes formal and family living areas and a beautiful outdoor space to enjoy. Step inside and feel immediately at home. All the bedrooms are equipped with built-in robes, while the master bedroom boasts a walk-in robe and an ensuite for added sophistication and privacy. Cook up a storm in the kitchen, well-equipped with ample cupboard space and a wrapping preparation island while the kids relax in the lounge room complete with a gorgeous bay window. A central bathroom with floor-to-ceiling tile services the rest of the home, and there is also an internal laundry for added convenience. Be lured outdoors to the entertaining area - the perfect setting for hosting gatherings and enjoying nature complete with a covered alfresco overlooking the verdant green gardens dotted with trees. Situated in a family-friendly street, this home offers easy access to a park, corner store, and school, adding to its appeal for families. Additionally, the property is conveniently located near the racecourse, golf club, shops, public transport, Seymour Health, and the scenic Goulburn River, providing a range of recreational options for residents. Whether you're looking for a forever home or a sound investment, this property offers endless possibilities. Arrange a viewing today to see it for yourself!
