Situated on popular Jupiter Boulevard on a wonderful corner block, this perfect two bedroom, coastal cottage has everything you need for relaxing beach getaways. Offering two bedrooms with large windows allowing for plenty of light, open plan living with a split system heating and cooling, and a beautifully designed kitchen with dishwasher, electric hotplates and oven. There is also a home office area, which can be used as an extra sleeping zone. A wonderful, private and spacious, sun filled deck with blinds provides just the place for alfresco dining or unwinding after the beach. A double carport, a large garden shed, plus a solar system are further convenient features, which make this property a delight. Plans for an extension have been drawn up giving the new owner the option of adding a master bedroom and ensuite (STCA). All this is situated on a flat, fenced block offering an easy and enjoyable stroll to the beaches and shopping village. Inspections will impress! If you have missed the OFI or are unable to attend at that time, please call us for a private inspection.
