Tucked away with superb privacy yet ideally located an easy walk to Woolworths and approximately 2 kms to Woolgoolga Beach on a deceptively large block, this affordable home could be just what you are looking for. You are warmly welcomed onto the cosy verandah that shelters the elements and provides a shady position to relax and put your feet up at the end of the day. The verandah also extends out to a rear back deck to enjoy a quiet sunny spot with a leafy view or an area for fun and laughter entertaining family and friends. Inside, the neat kitchen has a gas stove, good cabinetry and striking timber benchtops. This open living space features an exposed beam vaulted ceiling that provides natural light and good ventilation. Two glass sliding doors to the verandah and deck enables easy interaction and accessibility when entertaining outside. The timber panelling adds a touch of warmth and sophistication while reaping good practical benefits, a feature used throughout the home. Three large bedrooms, a spacious bathroom and large laundry complete this tidy package inside and double colorbond garage accommodate vehicle and storage needs. This quaint hardi-plank built home is unexpectedly nestled on a substantial block in a serene and natural setting that backs on to Woolgoolga Creek. With a solid starting point, space to play, lush picturesque established gardens and excellent location, the possibilities for this property are plentiful, giving you flexibility for the future as well as immediate comfort and security. Don't miss your opportunity for growth in this sought after suburb. Call Ray White Coffs Coast to book your inspection today.
