A true oasis of tranquil tropical privacy, this single level home is a leafy escape away from the daily hustle. Set at the rear of just two on the block - with a long driveway giving plenty of off-street parking - this is a comfortable, cool and effortlessly calm setting which will hold appeal for buyers stepping up, stepping down or investing in a location loved by many. Wrapped in greenery and with expansive decking setting the scene for outdoor entertaining, the accommodation is very inviting featuring a generous lounge with gas fireplace in a brick hearth creating a cosy focal point. A separate dining zone spills out to the undercover alfresco area, whilst right at the heart of the floorplan is an attractive soft grey kitchen with Bosch cooking appliances and a dish-drawer dishwasher. Both bedrooms are true doubles that provide ample built-in wardrobes, they share a very stylish bathroom with both bath and shower plus a separate powder room, while a laundry leading out to the wraparound yard is also offered. Including a split system in the living area and the luxurious comfort of hydronic heating throughout, the welcoming home is simply ready and waiting to be enjoyed. With Highland Avenue playground at one end of the street and bus stops at the other, this sought-after pocket is within walking distance of the station, supermarket & an array of restaurants.
