Residing in one of the area's leafiest beachside pockets, this luxury 2 bedroom residence has been designed and constructed locally to reflect the highly desirable Peninsula lifestyle. An ideal start or addition to your portfolio, holiday or permanent rental, Teresa Mia Mornington is positioned within a 300m stroll from local shops and cafes, 700m to Main Street's cosmopolitan centre, and 1.2km to Fisherman's Beach. Artfully designed and immaculately appointed, this single-level, contemporary apartment has been acoustically built for peaceful and private living suiting the down-sizer or low maintenance lifestyle. The interior reflects the pure sophistication of the architecture. Each space is generously appointed with a full suite of Bosch appliances, natural Southern Blackbutt flooring and extensive double-glazing beautifully connecting with the outdoor environment through the generous courtyard space. Enjoy the convenience of secure basement parking and storage cage, accessible through zoned lifts intelligently placed throughout the complex. Picturesque and well-established, this stunning apartment seizes all the best aspects of suburban and urban living to present a genuinely harmonious way of life, with all of Mornington's natural and cultural delights within arm's reach.
