Situated in a highly desirable locale, close to parkland and walking tracks, this meticulously maintained and expertly constructed family residence checks all the boxes. Boasting a generous open-plan living space that seamlessly integrates the kitchen and living hub, along with a separate formal lounge, this home offers versatile and spacious interiors. The well-appointed kitchen, overlooking the dining area, includes a substantial pantry with ample storage and appliance space. Equipped with zoned and ducted reverse-cycle air conditioning, the property ensures comfort throughout. All four bedrooms feature built-in robes, with the master bedroom showcasing a sizable walk-in robe and ensuite. The outdoor space is equally impressive, featuring a large entertaining area, a spacious and well-kept rear yard, and a fantastic 6x4m shed. This residence is an ideal choice for those seeking a home that requires no further effort – a place where you can simply move in and unwind.
