This 1982 built brick home is an absolute ripper. Very well presented by the current owner (who has lived there for 8 years) there is a lot to enjoy here:

- large comfortable lounge room with both a wood heater and heat pump
- generous kitchen and dining room
- three bedrooms (all with built ins)
- terrific off street parking (plenty of room for a couple of cars, boat, caravan etc)
- child and pet friendly back yard
- great entertaining deck to the rear which picks up some water views
- Undeveloped area under the house which is a terrific storage space

This property will have wide appeal in the current market....first home buyers and investors in particular.
