One of Burwoods most delightful streets sets the scene for this classic solid brick residence which is offered for the very first time. Positioned on a level allotment of 660m² (approx) and featuring a huge north-facing backyard awaiting your vision! The moment you set foot inside the entrance, rich original details are brought to life in the charismatic large formal lounge and adjoining formal dining while the central family sized kitchen features a generous meals area. The comfortable accommodation throughout includes three bedrooms all with built-in robes, main tiled bathroom, separate toilets and laundry. Well maintained grounds with stunning north facing rear orientation is where options to extend or build a new dream home as the family grows are endless (STCA). Also features gas heating, ample off street parking and large double garage, close to Wattle Park and St. Benedicts primary schools, PLC, Toorak Road shopping, city tram, bus and more.
