Introducing 23 Dorset Drive, a stunning property that offers an exceptional living experience for families. With its spacious main living area, you'll enjoy a combination of views including Kingston Beach and Mount Wellington, creating a serene and picturesque atmosphere all within a close and easy walk to all of Kingston's amenities, cafés, schools and shops. The modern and well-equipped kitchen is a standout feature, providing ample space for the entire family and boasting plenty of storage options. The four bedrooms are all designed with built-in clothes storage and receive abundant natural sunlight, creating warm and inviting spaces. Updates have been made to both the bathroom and laundry, ensuring a contemporary and stylish feel throughout the home. The dining area and kitchen offer views of the secure rear yard, while the enclosed sunroom provides a perfect spot for entertaining and seamlessly connects to the expansive deck space. But the entertaining areas don't end there. The large 6m x 7m garage workshop has been transformed into a fantastic man cave, complete with welcoming interiors and a lined finish. With plenty of off-street and secure parking space, you'll have no trouble accommodating all your vehicles and recreational equipment. The well-maintained yard is tidy and inviting, offering the perfect space for children and pets to thrive. Whether it's playing, gardening, or simply enjoying the outdoors, this property provides an ideal environment for creating lasting memories. Don't miss the opportunity to make 23 Dorset Drive your dream home. Its impressive features, stunning outlook, and spacious layout make it a true gem in the market. Contact us today to arrange a viewing and experience the beauty of this exceptional property firsthand. Features: - LED lighting - Updated flooring - Beautifully maintained and structurally perfect
