Discover an incredible opportunity in Portarlington, a picturesque coastal town. This delightful weatherboard home offers three bedrooms, an open, sunlit layout, and an enviable location just moments away from the water and essential conveniences. Inside, you'll find beautiful timber flooring in the welcoming living area, complemented by a contemporary fireplace, and a fully equipped kitchen with heating and cooling. The bathroom is designed for your comfort, featuring a modern vanity, a generous bathtub, and a separate walk-in shower. Adjacent, there's a separate toilet and a well-appointed laundry, with direct access to the covered entertainment area leading to the spacious backyard. The property also provides ample parking options, including a double-car undercover carport that extends to a single-car garage at the rear. Situated near the beach, Melbourne Ferry, and a variety of dining and shopping options in the town centre, this residence suits both permanent living and investment purposes.
