Welcomed in by a touch of a button that opens up the prestigious electrical gates that lead you to a stunning architect designed home, portraying grandeur, opulence and character all in one. Surrounded by landscaped gardens and the picturesque natural mountain setting, the location couldn't be more rewarding, and with the the additional benefit of having Mount Dandenong/Olinda shopping village and Mount Dandenong Primary school within a short stroll or commute, not to mention the endless list of amazing picnic grounds, walking tracks, cafes and lookouts that can all become part of your everyday life here. A masterpiece in open plan living, the home is accentuated by high skyline windows that create a wonderful light filled environment in the main living room and kitchen, which is thoughtfully enhanced with a walk in pantry, timber bench tops, a double oven, steam oven and dishwasher. An additional living room provides the perfect quiet setting for afternoon naps, reading, listening to music or to watching your favourite TV show. Three bedrooms and two bathrooms fill the floorplan, including a master with large walk in robe and ensuite, the second bedroom and study nook upstairs, and the third bedroom, family bathroom and powder room downstairs. Enjoy a refined balance of indoor/outdoor living with the option to entertain or dine outside, making good use of the covered BBQ area with wok burner, and the lush garden landscape. With the option to rent fully furnished or unfurnished, the home will cater to everyone's needs. Also featured: *2 car garage with studio (studio may be used by owners if needing to store furniture)*Hydronic heating throughout *Shared gardening provided*Back up generator connected to power board
