Perfectly positioned behind a picture perfect Victorian façade in the heart of Windsor this 1909 double fronted period gem presents a lovely blend of original features alongside some classic updates. Cherished by one family for the last 47 years & ideally located in a thriving lifestyle location, this charming period home, offering current day family appeal as well as exciting scope to further enhance & reimagine the ultimate inner-Melbourne lifestyle (STCA) is sure to interest many. An inviting front porch & long-arched hallway with original fretwork greets you on entry, accesses three generously proportioned bedrooms (main with ensuite), a comfortably spacious living/dining room & a stunning completely updated central bathroom with freestanding bath & shower, all resplendent with ornate fireplaces & soaring ceilings. The hallway culminates in an additional naturally light filled living space/sunroom opening out to a northerly oriented privately enclosed courtyard with lush garden surrounds, the ideal spot for alfresco relaxing & soaking up the sun. While a well equipped timber kitchen with stainless steel appliances (including dishwasher), an abundance of storage & space for a large dining table completes the accommodation. All fire places are original including tiles (some art nouveaux), all ceiling roses & skirting boards are original & original timber floors. Other features include separate laundry with additional shower & toilet. Hydronic heating throughout. Superbly located in a quiet street just close to Albert Park Lake, St Kilda Beach, vibrant Chapel Street shops, cafes, restaurants & nightlife, Prahran Market, Windsor Station & Prahran stations, trams & buses.
