How cute is this 3 bedder cream brick colonial home built in the 60's and proudly perched on the corner. Thanks to the app the magnificent sweeping trees are Weeping bottlebrush and himalayan cedar which adds to the homes air conditioning. Imagine stringing up a hammock and just lazing around reading or bird watching. The house itself is a bit of a project with very good bones and minimal cracking. We have exposed the carpet in bed 3 to reveal polished pine boards. You will love the room sizes and the floorplan works. Don't own a car all good bus stop is 10 metres away. Make no mistake this is a project so buy now do the work and reap the rewards. Come for a drive and be impressed with all the foothills have to offer. Even the address is a bit fancy
