This coastal oasis in Suffolk Park is nestled just 400 meters from the Tallow Beach, and offers a truly unique opportunity for dual occupancy/income beachside living. Step inside the main three-bedroom house and experience the perfect fusion of contemporary elegance and timeless beach house charm. With high ceilings, timber floors, this home boasts a relaxed atmosphere that effortlessly blends indoor and outdoor living. Entertain friends and family in style with multiple alfresco areas and courtyards, meanwhile, the landscaped tropical gardens surrounding the property create a private sanctuary for relaxation and enjoyment. Upstairs, discover your own slice of paradise in the master suite, complete with its own bathroom and private balcony, offering stunning views of the surrounding area. This property also features a separate two-bedroom cottage, perfect for accommodating guests, setting up a home office, or generating rental income. With its own unique character and charm, the cottage adds even more flexibility to this already versatile home. Located at the end of a quiet street with no through traffic and bordered by reserve on one side, peace and tranquility is abundant. Yet, you're just a stone's throw away from all the amenities you could need, including shops, cafes, restaurants, and even a tavern. Plus, with direct access to the surf via your side gate, beach days are just minutes away. Whether you're seeking a serene family retreat, or a peaceful place to call home, this Pet friendly home ticks all the boxes! Call Toni-Anne Rodd on 0402 714 503 to inspect today!
