Tucked away in the sought-after precinct of Crestmead lies this meticulously maintained and improved gem that's been crafted with love and care over the last decade. Every detail of this home promises warmth, comfort, and a unique charm. As you step inside, the plush carpet underfoot in the spacious lounge room instantly sets a tone of luxury. The arched walkways add an architectural allure, leading you effortlessly through the home and towards the inviting fireplace, where countless memories await to be created. Overhead, a ceiling fan ensures the room remains a haven no matter the season. The elegance continues into the Master and second bedroom. Both rooms echo the home's premium plush carpeting, fitted with built-in wardrobes that cater to all storage needs. Large windows allow for an abundance of natural light, illuminating the room and showcasing the beauty of the garden outside. Ensuring the utmost comfort, these rooms are also equipped with ceiling fans, and blackout blinds. The master room is also equipped with air conditioning, elevating this comfort year-round. Bedroom three is not just any room; it stands out with its intimate reading nook, creating a perfect hideaway for those cherished quiet moments, all while enjoying the same plush carpeting, air conditioning, and ceiling fan. Your spa day is every day in the main bath. Lined with exquisite ceramic tiling, it offers a spacious bath for those moments of relaxation. The added touch of a heating lamp makes every morning warm and inviting, with a separate toilet offering further convenience. For those who find joy in cooking, the kitchen is a dream realized. Gleaming ceramic tiles, matched with a chic tile backsplash, set the stage. At its heart, a Bellini stainless steel oven stands ready for any culinary adventure, paired perfectly with a Westinghouse dishwasher. And, adding a touch of modernity, the extendable mixer tap makes every task a breeze. Upon stepping outside, you're immediately immersed in a luxurious oasis reminiscent of a high-end resort. The centrepiece is a stunning swimming pool that glistens under the sun, its crystal-clear waters inviting you for a refreshing dip. But it's not just any pool; it boasts an exhilarating water slide, promising endless fun and laughter. Whether you're hosting summer parties or enjoying a quiet evening swim, this pool is sure to be the envy of everyone who sees it. The transformed garage stands as a testament to versatility and thoughtful design. Currently set up as a quintessential man cave, it's a space that resonates with comfort and personal touch. However, its true strength lies in its adaptability. With ample space and a neutral foundation, it can easily be reimagined to serve various functions tailored to your lifestyle. Whether you envision it as a bustling home office, brimming with creativity and productivity, or as a serene teenage retreat, offering a haven for relaxation and introspection, this room is equipped to accommodate. Its potential doesn't stop there; it could also be transformed into a cozy guest room, a vibrant playroom for kids, a dedicated hobby space, or even a home gym. The possibilities are as vast as your imagination, making it a truly invaluable addition to the home. Nature lovers will be in their element, navigating the established tropical garden. An abundance of delights awaits, from the fruit tree to the thriving vegetable garden and the serene pond. Adjacent to this green paradise is the paved covered entertaining area, ready for any event or simply for a tranquil evening under the stars. 23 Kilby Street is not just a house; it's a home, offering a unique blend of comfort, functionality, and leisure. It's a place where everyone, regardless of age or interest, will find their corner of happiness. Book your viewing today and discover the magic of Kilby Street.
