What a pleasure to present - this beautiful home offers something for everyone. Offering 3 bedrooms all with built in robes, formal lounge/dine with floating floors, modern kitchen with gas cooking and views across the garden to the hills. The bathroom has been upgraded and offers floor to ceiling tiling. There is airconditioning for your year round comfort and outside a huge pitched verandah to take care of your entertaining. To help with the power bills there are solar panels on the roof. For the boys there is a garage/workshop, carport and parking for several vehicles. Located in the Modbury Heights School zone, it's also walking distance to the shops. If you look at only one home this weekend, make sure it's this one. You won't be disappointed!!!
