Discover serenity in this spacious cinnamon brick home tucked away in a tranquil court, surrounded by privately owned residences. The property boasts full-length front and rear verandahs, providing the perfect spots to savor your morning coffee or evening relaxation. Privacy is ensured with a fully fenced yard, and practicality is offered by a single carport with an attached 9m² shed, equipped with power. The meticulously maintained gardens create a picturesque backdrop to your daily life. Indoors, a well-appointed kitchen, complete with overhead cupboards, pantry, and wine rack, caters to the home chef's needs. Security screens and sliding doors throughout the house guarantee your safety. The lounge room, generously sized and tiled, is fitted with split air conditioning. An adjacent bonus room could easily be transformed into a fourth bedroom or a versatile space to suit your desires. The main bedroom opens to the back verandah and features split air conditioning. Two additional bedrooms, also equipped with split air conditioning and built-in robes, provide ample comfort for family or guests. Outdoors, a brick BBQ on the full-length rear verandah and a fenced pebblecrete and tile spa offer opportunities for relaxation and entertainment in a well-established garden setting. In essence, this cinnamon brick home is an oasis of comfort and tranquility. Contact us today to experience the lifestyle it offers and make it your very own.
