This spacious two-storey home is conveniently located to schools, shops, Costco, and in walking distance to TAFE and Bundamba train station. Only minutes to Warrego Highway making travelling to Brisbane, Gold Coast and Toowoomba region easy. The lower level features a spacious tiled family room with recess lighting and a sliding door providing direct access to the backyard. Enjoy the flexibility of two extra rooms, perfect for a home office, study or guest space, both complemented by a convenient built-in storage area tailored for organising your belongings. Additionally, the lower level is also equipped with a generous laundry that leads to the backyard. Also offering an ideal space ready for you to design your dream bathroom equipped with toilet to get you started. The internal timber steps lead up to the top floor/main house with a generous-sized lounge room with beautifully polished wooden floorboards. The lounge room has a ceiling fan, recess lighting and wooden blinds. Down the hall leads to 3 bedrooms all with air conditioners, ceiling fans, mirrored free-standing wardrobes and the original bathroom. Enjoy dining in comfort with an air-conditioned space complemented by a galley-style kitchen featuring sleek laminated benchtops, chrome appliances, and stylish wooden blinds. From the kitchen and dining area, go through the back door and it leads to a spacious covered back deck ideal for entertaining. The deck also provides a second covered area to the level below. Back steps from the deck give easy access to the lower level and backyard. The backyard features rear access to a sizable double bay shed, and ample fencings surrounding the spacious yard. With its unbeatable location and impressive features, this property won't last long on the market.
