Nestled on the charming Milligan Street in Taree, this property is a testament to both convenience and comfort. Boasting three bedrooms, it's an ideal space for families or those seeking room to grow. The heart of this home is its spacious kitchen, offering not only functionality but also generous bench space. Step outside, and you're greeted by a massive undercover outdoor entertaining area that cleverly doubles as a carport. This versatile space is perfect for hosting gatherings or providing shelter for vehicles, ensuring that every inch of this property is utilized efficiently. One of the property's unique perks is its close proximity to a supermarket, bakery and cinema, just a short walk down the road. This convenience adds a layer of practicality to daily living, making grocery runs a breeze. Adding to the appeal, the property boasts established fruit trees, creating a serene atmosphere and offering the joy of harvesting your own fruits. 23 Milligan Street combines functionality, accessibility, and natural charm, making it a desirable residence for those seeking a home that effortlessly blends practicality with a touch of nature in the heart of Taree.
