Perfectly positioned in a quiet cul-de-sac, this easy care residence is a haven of tranquility. Lush landscaped gardens surround the home with an oasis style swimming pool for family fun. The lower level comprises of a formal lounge, good size kitchen with dishwasher, a flexible 4th bedroom/home office/TV room and a lovely dining room with French doors opening into the back garden. The alfresco area outside is overlooking Second Creek and there is a convenient powder room located downstairs also. Abundant wildlife including koalas, possums, and birds regularly roam through the property and there is excellent access to nearby walking trails. On the upper level there are three (3) bedrooms, all with built in robes and the master also with an ensuite. There is a second living area which could also be used as a spacious study and bathroom with that handy separate toilet for the rest of the family. This home has modern ducted reverse cycle AC with zoning throughout to keep you cool in summer and warm in winter. There is a secure 2 car garage as well as room for one additional car in the driveway. Located close to quality schools, Burnside Primary School zoning, parks, shops and all that Burnside has to offer this could be your next family home. Please note storage shed is excluded from lease.
