What an incredible chance to acquire a property in close proximity to the river! This freehold parcel spans 435m² and comes complete with power and water connections, along with the convenience of pre-existing STEDS. The existing structure has undergone a thorough inspection after the flood by a qualified engineer, confirming its structural integrity. Moreover, it has been professionally treated for mould, presenting a clean slate for anyone eager to embark on a rebuilding property. Blanchetown is only 1.5 hours from Adelaide and is the perfect place for a weekend getaway to relax and recharge the batteries. Whether you enjoy fishing or boating you can enjoy it here.
